Why I should be Miss _____: It is critical that this state face and embrace its cultural diversity issues and it must be done now. The traditional ethnic make-up of our state is rapidly changing and unless we confront and inoculate the potential conflicts which might arise, we are headed to potential racial conflicts we have not seen since the 1960s. These conflicts are generally caused by fear and ignorance. Through a statewide spokesperson who can give this issue a face and a voice, we can begin the educational process which needs to take place. The reality is that Miss _____ can have her greatest sphere of influence among our state's youth. By placing Miss _____ in the midst of our state's young people we start the process of changing mindsets and, ultimately, changing the way in which they will treat one another in the future. The issues related to Celebrating Cultural Diversity and Inclusiveness are not just related to race, but also to religion, cultural differences, and sexism. There is no greater role for Miss _____ than to educate, empower, and embrace the issue of cultural diversity at this point in our state's history.
